Dear Parent / Carer

We are pleased to announce the appointment of Mr Adrian Cooper as Headmaster of Newlands School and he will take up post with immediate effect. The post becomes vacant with the retirement of Chris Bridgman at the end of the summer term 2010. Adrian is known to many of you as Deputy Head of the Senior School and as an Art Teacher. Over the last few months Adrian has shown a dedication and commitment for Newlands beyond what was expected of him. He will not only be a link to the past but will be a new driving force within the school to make Newlands a school to be proud of in the coming years. A number of external candidates were interviewed also.

Chris Bridgman will remain at the school until the end of the summer term. Chris has agreed to take on a roving ambassadorial role promoting business development and boarding within the school.

May I take this opportunity to thank you for your continued and much valued support for Newlands School and wish Adrian success in his new role.

Yours sincerely

Nasreen Kasuri
Director
